

Celebrate Winter Solstice with Swedish Crime Novels at Mesquite Library December 14-22, 2015

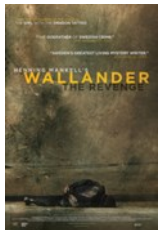

Swedish Crime Scenes Exhibition

From Ystad in the south to Kiruna in the north, explore the places that inspired your favorite Swedish Crime Novels.

Swedish Crime Films Movie Nights

Brief Introduction at 5:45pm, Films Start at 6:00pm

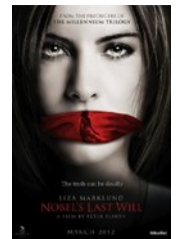

Tuesday December 15- Wallander: The Revenge

Based on an original story by "The Godfather of Swedish Crime" Henning Mankell, featuring his most popular character, inspector Kurt Wallander.

Thursday December 17- Nobel's Last Will

Murder at the Nobel Prize Banquet. A terrorist group from Germany takes the credit. But all is not what it seems...

Tuesday, Dec 22- The 100 Year Old Man Who Climbed

Out the Window and Disappeared

Determined to escape from his nursing home on his 100th birthday, Allan Karlsson leaps out of a window and onto the nearest bus, kicking off an unexpected journey involving a suitcase stuffed with cash, some wicked criminals, and an elephant named Sonya.

Exhibition and Movie Nights will take place at:

Phoenix Public Library—Mesquite Branch
4525 E. Paradise Village Parkway North

